BIOGRAPHIES

Savvas Ciriacidis and Alex Lehnerer run the Zurich based architecture office CIRIACIDISLEHNERER since 2012. Both architects are concerned with examining architecture as a cultural practice. Their practical and theoretical work has been published internationally and won several prizes.

Alex Lehnerer, born 1974 in Erlangen, Germany, currently holds a position as Assistant Professor of Architecture and Urban Design at the Department of Architecture at ETH Zurich. During the past two years, Lehnerer and his team have conducted research in Singapore and Southeast Asia. From 2008 to 2012, he was based in Chicago, where he held a professorship at the University of Illinois' School of Architecture. He received his PhD from ETH Zurich and is a graduate of the University of California in Los Angeles (UCLA).

Savvas Ciriacidis, born 1975 in Stuttgart, Germany, studied architecture at the Technical University of Stuttgart and graduated from ETH Zurich before becoming a practicing architect in Zurich. From 2006 to 2013, he was a researcher and lecturer in the Department of Architecture and Design under the direction of Prof. Christian Kerez at ETH Zurich.
